Cletech X Series Double Sided Totem Enclosure offers you a wide range, from 46" to 98". It generates a high-impact impression with its very slim and elegant design compared to double-sided products. Enclosure features composed by Cletech with its high-quality engineering experiences allows the end user to mount the monitor at the easiest way. The totem is functional with both professional and commercial displays that are compatible with the VESA Interface Standard. It includes PC compartment in VESA standards designed for an extra PC or media player.

Increased temperature in the enclosure, due to the dual monitor in the X01 Totem, is evacuated by fans at the top of the chassis. There are some extra fan spaces, in the subsection of the enclosure, offered optionally for the monitors need additional ventilation. Cletech Fan Module or another fan can be mounted to this area.
